Portman Ridge Finance Corporation Announces Corporate Rebranding, New Monthly Base Distribution, and Value Creation Initiatives

Company to be Renamed “BCP Investment Corporation” and Trade Under New Ticker “BCIC”

Transition to Paying the Quarterly Base Distribution Monthly in 2026

Company, Management, Adviser and Other Affiliates Intend to Acquire up to 20% of Common Shares Over Next 24 Months to the Extent the Stock Trades Below 80% of NAV

NEW YORK, June 17, 2025 – Portman Ridge Finance Corporation (NASDAQ: PTMN) (“Portman Ridge” or “PTMN”), today announced several updates and initiatives, aimed at enhancing shareholder value. These initiatives include a corporate name change, the transition to paying a monthly distribution, and an enhanced stock purchase program. These changes will go into effect following the successful closing of the merger with Logan Ridge Finance Corporation (“LRFC”).

Upon closing, Portman Ridge will rebrand and begin operating under the name BCP Investment Corporation (the “Company” or “BCIC”). In connection with the rebranding, the Company will continue to trade on the Nasdaq under the new ticker symbol “BCIC”. This change better reflects the fact that the Company is fully integrated into the broader BC Partners Credit Platform and the credit platform’s commitment to the Company, which is a leading global alternative asset manager with almost $9.0 billion in assets under management across its credit platforms.

Additionally, beginning in 2026, the Company will transition to paying its currently quarterly base distribution on a monthly basis, while retaining the potential for quarterly supplemental distributions. The quarterly supplemental distributions will continue to approximate 50% of the incremental net investment income earned in excess of the base monthly distributions. We believe that the transition to a monthly base distribution will be valued by investors and has the potential to increase liquidity in the Company’s stock.

To further align our interests with shareholders and drive additional value creation, the Company, along with its management, its adviser and their affiliates intend to acquire up to 20% of the Company’s outstanding common stock over the next 24 months to the extent the Company’s shares continue to trade below 80% of net asset value (“NAV”), which implies a share price of $15.08 based Portman Ridge’s March 31, 2025 NAV per share, or a 31% premium to PTMN’s June 16, 2025 closing market price. These purchases will begin no earlier than 60 calendar days following the date of the closing of the LRFC merger and may occur through various methods, including open market purchases and privately negotiated transactions, and may be conducted pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 and Rule 10b-18 trading plans. In this regard and as previously announced, PTMN's Board of Directors has authorized an open market stock repurchase program of up to $10 million for the period from March 12, 2025 to March 31, 2026. The Company, its management and its adviser also reserve the right to conduct tender offers as part of the Company's broader value creation initiatives.

Management Commentary

Ted Goldthorpe, President and Chief Executive Officer of PTMN and Head of the BC Partners Credit Platform, stated, "The corporate rebranding of Portman Ridge to BCP Investment Corporation reflects the Company's affiliation with the broader BC Partners Credit Platform and underscores the significance of the Company to the platform as well as the credit platform's commitment to its success.

Finally, we remain committed to addressing the discount to NAV at which our shares currently trade as well as increasing our ownership in the Company for better alignment with shareholders. We believe these value creation initiatives represent a thoughtful and constructive framework that supports long-term value creation for our shareholders."
